

TODOMONDO - PISA

Can you find these images in the mural? Draw an arrow to connect them.

A delphin - a woman with a baby in her arms - a television - two people who look like a pair of scissors - a hand.

Complete the text with the correct words:

Florence, Pisa, comics, stylized men, love, snake, dog, dolphin

American artist and writer Keith Haring (1958-1990) created lively and ironic images, full of _____ in movement, inspired by the world of _____. In 1989, he made a large mural called "Tuttomondo" in _____. This is the last artwork of the artist, who died at the age of 32, just a few months after finishing it.

In "Tuttomondo," with his imaginary characters, Keith Haring shows his view of the world: he celebrates _____ and life, promoting the effort to protect nature (a man with a _____ on his back), to fight evil (scissors cutting the _____), violence, and injustice.